MEDICINAL

MILLIONS FOR A NEW STOMACH

One of the greatest American millionaires once said to his physician, "A million dollars, Doctor, for a new stomach," and then the sick man groaned and turned away. One of a man's greatest pleasures is that born of a keen appetite, vigorous digestion and a good dinner, and this belongs to many a good fellow who is living on small wages, but the rich man without a stomach has to forego the good things of the table because his stomach rebels. Without a healthy stomach and a good digestion, our blood is thin, watery and poor, our heart action is weak, our liver does not do its duty, and man is miserable and unhappy. In this condition man is prey to the germs of influenza, consumption, malaria and all the ills that he is heir to. Consumption can be treated by natural methods which are as close to nature as possible. Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., years ago understood this disease, and after a long period of experiment discovered certain roots and herbs which were nature's remedies, and succeeded in putting them up in a form that would be easily procured and ready to use. This he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It gives no false stimulation because it contains no alcohol and no narcotic. It helps digestion and the assimilation of such elements in the food as are required for the blood. Instead of a cod liver oil, against which the already sensitive stomach will declare open rebellion, this tonic has a pacifying action upon the sensitive stomach and gives to the blood the food elements the tissues require. It maintains the patient's nutrition by enabling him to eat, retain, digest and assimilate nutritious food. It cures nervous gastric irritability and symptoms of indigestion, and in this way fever, night-sweats, headaches, etc., are done away with. It fortifies the body against the germs of consumption, grip and malaria and it builds up the tissues and puts on healthy flesh. When the druggist says he has something that is "just as good" as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, he says so because he hopes to make a better profit, but his own mixtures have not stood the test of long experience nor had the success that Dr. Pierce's medicines have had.

AUSTRIA AND ITALY.

When Premier Giolitti, of Italy, came into power a year ago he found the relations between Italy and Austria in a very disturbed condition in consequence of the fact that anti-Austrian demonstrations had been tolerated by Signor Zanardelli, his predecessor, who, it is alleged, winked at the propaganda for the union with Italy of the Italian provinces that are still subject to Austria. Signor Giolitti changed all this and assured Austria she had nothing to fear from Italy. This was publicly emphasized by the meeting at Abazia in April last of Signor Tittoni, the Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Count Goluchowsky, the Austrian chancellor. However, Austria's denial of the request of her Italian subjects for a national university at Trieste led up to the troubles at Innsbruck, which have endangered good relations between the two governments. Behind all other explanations of the Innsbruck affair there is the racial hatred between Italians and Austro-Germans in Italian provinces subject to Austria, the latter element having vainly tried for five centuries to Germanize the provinces. Austria's refusal to establish an Italian faculty in the University of Trieste that it would result in the university becoming the center of an anti-Austrian propaganda, but recently it was decided to institute an Italian faculty at the Innsbruck University. This went into effect on November 3, when the rioting began. The disturbances, it is alleged here, were provoked by aggressions on the part of the Germans. The cabinets of Vienna and Rome are doing what they can to smooth over the difficulty.

About 500 students yesterday gathered in the center of Milan crying "Down with Austria," and called to the balcony of his hotel the Innsbruck correspondent of Il Corriere della Sera, who had just arrived from that place after having been severely maltreated by Germans. Subsequently four Germans who were sitting in a cafe began singing "The Watch On the Rhine." Requests that they cease were met with further insults and declarations that the Italians were cowards. A fight, in which sticks were used, then ensued, and a number of persons were injured. The police, however, restored order.

A dispatch from Vienna says that Prince Minister von Koerber yesterday afternoon had a stormy interview with Herr Erler, vice burgomaster of Innsbruck, and Herr Denschatze, leader of the people's party. The Premier firmly declined to close the Italian faculty of the University of Innsbruck.

Mrs. Maybrick Penitence.

Deserted by her children and almost penniless, Mrs. Florence Maybrick, recently freed from an English prison, is the guest of Mrs. Dr. Emmet Densmore, in Brooklyn. She spends most of her time working on the story of her life, "A Tragedy of Justice," which is to appear in book form the first of next month.

Mrs. Maybrick's fortune was so reduced by her long fight for freedom that she was unable to take the rest she needed on leaving the prison. Through the summer months, which she spent at Craymore with the Densmores, eight hours a day was her allotted time for work on her book. It tells of her life from August 7, 1889, when the jury's verdict of guilty was rendered, to the last day within the prison walls.

"She often talks to us of different women whom she has known in her prison experience," said Mrs. Densmore yesterday. She is whole-hearted, and felt deeply interested in many of them. In her book she tells of the lives of many of them.

"Her children were so influenced by the Maybricks—their father's people—that they have turned against their mother. They were both children when she was tried, and it is only natural that they should have been so influenced. They are in England now. Mrs. Maybrick's mother, Baroness von Roques, is in France. Her fortune has been greatly reduced by her efforts to liberate her daughter, and Mrs. Maybrick herself is left without a cent.

Hicks for November.

First storm period, regular, covers the first six days of the month, having its center on the third.

Second storm period, reactionary, is central on the 8th and 9th. Look for gusts of autumn wind and rain at this time, followed by changes to colder, with snow squalls and frosty nights.

Third storm period, regular, will culminate on the 14th, 15th and 16th, although its effects will be felt from the 12th to the 17th.

About the 12th and 13th marked changes to warmer and falling barometer will begin in the west and by the 14th cloudiness and rain will spread eastward across the country.

Frost and freezing may be expected during the nights succeeding these disturbances.

Fourth storm period, reactionary, is central on the 19th and 20th. The Vulcan reactionary and the first stage of the Venus period will disturb at this time. Rain and snow are due in this period.

Fifth storm period, regular, extends from the 24th and 25th. This Vulcan period is fully within the Venus period, having the combined forces of the two disturbing factors.

Quick Arrest.

J. A. Gullledge, of Verbena, Ala., was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles, causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Drug gists.

A Good Complexion.

"Sparkling eyes and rosy cheeks restored by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers," so writes S. P. Moore, of Nacogdoches, Tex. A certain cure for biliousness, constipation, etc. Small pill—easy to take—easy to act. Sold by all druggists.

Chronic Diarrhea Cured.

Mr. Walter Richardson, of Troutville, Va., had an attack of diarrhoea that came near ending his life. His physician had failed to relieve him and the disease had become chronic when he began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It soon cured him and he now recommends that preparation whenever an opportunity offers. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co., druggists.
